For a small island, Sri Lanka has many nicknames: Teardrop of India, Pearl of the Orient etc. This colorful collection reveals its richness and beauty, and the intensity of the affection it evokes in its visitors. Consequently this small island state contains an exotic mixture of languages, cultures and religions. Sri Lanka, the Isle of Serendipity is a tourist paradise with an abundance of tourist attractions like the sunny beaches, glorious ancient cities, salubrious hill country, beautiful fauna & flora, exquisite handicrafts, world renowned gems, traditional dance & drama, colorful festivals, smiling people and not forgetting the mouthwatering Sri Lankan cuisine. Sri Lanka is fast becoming the shopping Centre of South Asia.

13. All about booking

When to Book

We recommend booking at least 2 months in advance of your trip although it is common for people to book 6 or more months in advance. Any booking made inside of 2 months before trip start date runs the risk of availability issues.

Booking process

This is very simple and involves in sending an official email with all your travel plans . On receipt of this form we will contact you with confirmation of arrangements and send you an invoice and instructions for the deposit payment. About 4 weeks before your rip start date we will send out your travel documents including your completed confirmation.

Pricing

All our prices are in US Dollars. Your quotation will be sent as a reply to your mail according to your travel plans . In rare instances there may be price changes after you have made a booking with us in accordance with our booking terms and conditions. We reserve the right to implement these on all bookings up to 60 days before the trip start date with us.

Descriptions

Every effort is made to provide accurate descriptions of our services. However, occasionally, certain items are unavailable or have to be changed in which case we will provide alternative arrangements to the same or a higher standard.

Booking Conditions

Cancellation If you wish to cancel your trip, we require written notice from you and will apply cancellation charges using the date we receive this notice and in accordance with our booking terms and conditions which are available on request and on our website.

Travel Insurance

As a booking condition we require all clients taking our trips to have their own insurance against medical costs whilst abroad. International Flights None our trips do not include international flights and we do not arrange international flights. This gives you the freedom to source your own flight and take advantage of any frequent flyer or air miles programs you may have.

Medical advice

There are no specific vaccinations required to enter Sri Lanka but you are advised to contact your local travel clinic or doctor as there may be requirements in certain cases Contact us for more information but ultimately your doctor needs to advise fully.
